Pause and effect

It's not often that leading designers drop out and hit pause. But after a quiet three years, JJ Valaya makes his big comeback with a renewed commitment to couture matched by a new collection, space and idea of luxury, finds Shahnaz Siganporia

Photographed by NISHANTH RADHAKRISHNAN

A couple of years ago, at another designer's couture show, as the lights dimmed and the models sashayed in, JJ Valaya realised he was bored. Bored by the well-dressed rat face that he had become a part of—the knock-off-like trend-based aesthetic that he was seeing show after show, the templated cycle in which couture was

The 52-year-old designer is back after a three-year hiatus with a focus on making couture exclusive and experiential
